Details

this rare and visually arresting "Pagrù" is an Italian design that emphasizes fine quality and remarkable craftsmanship. It is a great representation of how the Space Age influenced mid-century design.

The camel-coloured leather upholstery is part of the original piece. The seat is divided into two identical parts and rests on two parallel legs that support the front and the back of the chair. Besides from the unusual shape of this curvaceous Pagrù, the 'Y' shaped black profiles on each side are the main design elements.
