

SIDE GALLERY

AFRA (1937-2011) & TOBIA SCARPA (1935-)

Sofa of "Basilian I" series

Manufactured by B&B Maxalto
Italy, 1975
Bamboo and malacca structure

Measurements

210 cm x 65,5 cm x 76 h cm
82,7 in x 25,8 in x 30 h in

Literature

R. Masiero, M. Maguolo "Afra e Tobia
Scarpa architetti/architects 1959 – 1999,
Tobia Scarpa architetto/architect
2000 - 2009", Electa, 2009

G. Gramigna, "Repertorio del design italiano per l'arredamento domestico.
1950-2000", Allemandi, 2003

Biography

Afra and Tobia Scarpa graduated at the Istituto Universitario di Architettura in Venice and formed one of the most successful and known professional associations. Their works can be found in museums across the USA and Europe such as the MoMA and the Louvre. Their designs like the Soriana sofa exhibit a decidedly modernist aesthetic, prioritizing pared-back elegance and comfort. At the same time, the Scarpas are admired for the ease with which their designs complement both classical and cutting-edge interiors. The husband-and-wife duo's products played an important role in the history of Italian Design and are thriving in the Mid-Century market. The Soriana sofa is a collectors' piece and part of the history of Italian design destined to increase in value with the time. A piece of true Italian Modernism.