

SIDE GALLERY

MARIO SABOT

Modular Sofa

Manufactured by Mario Sabot.
Italy, 1970s.
Chrome-plated steel, Fabric.

Measurements

460 x 73 x 85h cm
181,1 x 28,7 x 33,5h in

Biography

Mario Sabot was an important design studio of the 20th century, which produced numerous designs by Willy Rizzo.

Willy Rizzo (1928-2013) was an Italian designer renowned for his significant contributions to the world of furniture design during the 20th century.

Rizzo's passion for design led him to collaborate with the prominent design studio, Mario Sabot. Working alongside Sabot, Rizzo's creative vision and expertise contributed to the production of numerous remarkable designs. Together, they crafted furniture pieces that showcased a seamless blend of modern and classical elements, characterized by sleek lines, luxurious materials, and timeless aesthetics.

Throughout his career as a designer, Rizzo's innovative approach and attention to detail garnered him international recognition. His designs were sought after by a discerning clientele, including celebrities, influential individuals, and luxury brands. Rizzo's furniture pieces became synonymous with refined taste and became coveted additions to stylish interiors worldwide.

Willy Rizzo's creative legacy as a designer continues to inspire the field of furniture design. His ability to merge functionality with timeless elegance, as evidenced through his collaborations with Mario Sabot, has solidified his position as a celebrated figure in the design industry. Today, his designs are cherished as iconic pieces that epitomize sophistication and impeccable craftsmanship.