Biography

Sabine Marcelis (b. 1985 -) is a designer living and working in Rotterdam the Netherlands. Raised in New Zealand, she studied industrial design for two years at Victoria University of Wellington, and continued her studies at the Design Academy Eindhoven, where she graduated in 2011. Since graduating, she has been operating Studio Sabine Marcelis, working within the fields of product, installation and spacial design with a strong focus on materiality. Her work is characterised by pure forms which highlight material properties.

Concept

The Stacked collection by Sabine Marcelis, produced exclusively for Side Gallery, celebrates materiality and juxtaposing of natural versus manufactured. It features four natural stone works made in Sunrise Delight onyx single-cast resin: a side table, a coffee table, a mirror and a console. Each object is to be discovered three-dimensionally and exists without direction, making them very flexible in their use. The result is a harmonic, polished, geometrical shape where the offset resin volumes create a playful dynamic to the monolith stone structures and either plug into or stack on top of them. The juxtaposition of nature-made onyx is contrasted by the translucent volumes of cast resin, which reference the veining of the onyx, and the colour use of the resin is determined by the naturally occurring warm cognac veining of the stone. This game of colours and volumes makes these structural static objects dynamic and multifunctional. Within the Stacked series, this is the first time an entire collection is created of different typologies of functional design using the same materials.
